- Mesothelioma, primary pericardial, report of 2 cases and review of literature (Sytman and MacAlpin), 760
- Microangiographic study of myocardial infarction (Hassler), 521
- Milk protein and other food antigens in atheroma and coronary heart disease (Davies), 289 (Annot.)
- Mitral leaflet, billowing posterior, syndrome, and congenital heart disease, association between (Pocock and Barlow), 720 (Annot.)
- prosthetic valve, ball variance in, auscultatory and phonocardiographic sign of (Schluger, Mannix, and Wolf), 809
- regurgitation, diastolic, pitfall in angiographic assessment of mitral valve (Linhart, Hildner, and Samet), 439 (Annot.)
- stenosis, evaluation of (Comhaire and Uyttenhove), 443 (Letter to Editor)
- valve, angiographic assessment of, diastolic mitral regurgitation pitfall in (Linhart, Hildner, and Samet), 439 (Annot.)
- incompetent heterograft, murmurs originating from (Killebrew and Cohn), 490
- Monitoring, meticulous, of all patients (Burch and Giles), 438 (Annot.)
- Morphine, role in acute myocardial infarction (Todres), 566
- Murmurs originating from incompetent heterograft mitral valves (Killebrew and Cohn), 490
- Myocardial contractility, effect of pentazocine on (Levitsky et al.), 381
- disease and respiratory disease, serologic evidence of sporadic outbreak in Illinois of infection by Chlamydia (psittacosis-LVG agent) in patients with (Sutton et al.), 597
- infarction, acute, cardiac pacing in, complicated by complete heart block (Khan), 723 (Letter to Editor)
- indications for temporary pacemaker insertion in (Kaltman), 837

Myocardial—Cont'd

- mortality rates with cardiac pacing (Hershberg), 723 (Letter to Editor)
- role of morphine in (Todres), 566
- computer analysis of orthogonal ECG and VCG in 1,002 patients with (Eddleman and Pipberger), 608
- experimental (Palmer et al.), 729 (Letter to Editor)
- changes in norepinephrine stores in canine heart following (Mathes and Gudbjarnason), 211
- microangiographic study (Hassler), 521
- recurrent, accuracy of electrocardiogram in diagnosis of, autopsy study (Merrill and Pearce), 48
- ischemia, experimental acute, relative effectiveness of three antiarrhythmic agents in treatment of ventricular arrhythmias in (Weisse et al.), 503
- and serum lactate changes during isoproterenol-induced infarction (Lutmer and Wexler), 516
- Myxoma of right ventricle (Hubbard and Neil), 548

N

- Nervous system, role of, in arrhythmias produced by coronary occlusion in cat (Gillis), 677
- Norepinephrine stores in canine heart, changes following experimental myocardial infarction (Mathes and Gudbjarnason), 211

- Occlusive disease, femoropopliteal artery, assessment of reconstructive procedures for (Downs), 716 (Annot.)
- Ouabain, differential effects of, on sinus, A-V nodal, His bundle, and idioventricular rhythms (Scherlag et al.), 227
- effect on splanchnic hemodynamics in rhesus monkey (Shanbour et al.), 511

P

- Pacemaker, cardiac, artificial (Thalen), 583
- assessment of: pacemaker frontal plane vectors (Green), 1
- catheter, transvenous, unusual complication of (Massumi), 259
- demand, transthoracic, implantation, entrance block previously unrecognized phenomenon associated with (Rubenfire, Breneman, and Taber), 102
- external battery-powered demand, potentially dangerous rate and amplitude control interaction in (Beller and Pupillo), 717 (Annot.)
- failure, emergency management of, by means of radio-frequency energy (Benvenuto and Mayer), 738
- frontal plane vectors (Green), 1
- insertion, temporary, indications for, in acute myocardial infarction (Kaltman), 837
- malfunction, detection of, by use of simultaneous surface and endocardial leads (Hsu et al.), 574 (Annot.)

Pacemaker—Cont'd

- monitoring: detection of pacemaker malfunction by use of simultaneous surface and endocardial leads (Hsu et al.), 574 (Annot.)
- QRS-blocking, demand, method of suppression in study of arrhythmias (Trevino et al.), 20
- transvenous, paroxysmal cough induced by (Kang et al.), 719 (Annot.)
- Pacing, coronary sinus, right atrial, and right ventricular, cardiovascular dynamics during (Befeler et al.), 372
- demand, in carotid sinus syncope (Fearon), 581 (Letter to Editor)
- Reply (Voss and Magnin), 581
- Palpitation, precordial (Stapleton and Groves), 409
- Parasystole, reassessment (Watanabe), 451
- Pentazocine, effect on myocardial contractility and peripheral vascular resistance (Levitsky et al.), 381
- Pericardial disease, acoustic phenomena in (Spodick), 114
- Pharmacologic agents, action in experimental cardiac tamponade (Finegan et al.), 220
- blockade of carcinoid flushing provoked by catecholamines and alcohol (Adamson et al.), 141 (Annot.)
- phonocardiography, new method using angiotensin (Yamamoto et al.), 29
- Phasic coronary blood velocity in man, new method to measure (Benchimol, Stegall, and Gartlan), 93
- Phonocardiographic and auscultatory sign of ball variance in mitral prosthetic valve (Schluger, Mannix, and Wolf), 809
- Phonocardiography, pharmacologic, new method using angiotensin (Yamamoto et al.), 29
- Postpartal cardiomyopathy, effect on, of prolonged bed rest (Burch, McDonald, and Walsh), 186
- Potassium-depleted dogs, cardiovascular function in (Bahler and Rakita), 650
- Potassium excretion in patients in congestive heart failure, effects of glucagon on (Simanis and Goldberg), 202
- Precordial palpation (Stapleton and Groves), 409
- Prosthetic heart valves, durability of (Hyllen), 299
- Pulmonary angiography in acute pulmonary embolism; indications, techniques, and results in 367 patients (Dalen et al.), 166
- arterial flow and vascular conductance, effects of ventilation on (Murao and Rodbard), 69
- atresia with intact interventricular septum, operative treatment with survival (Rook and Gootman), 476
- embolism, acute, pulmonary angiography in; indications, techniques, and results in 367 patients (Dalen et al.), 166
- stenosis and double-outlet left ventricle with ventricular septal defect, report of surgical repair (Kerr et al.), 688
- valve closure, premature, and backward transmission of left atrial V wave (Spring and Rowe), 327

Pulmonary—Cont'd

- venous drainage, subdiaphragmatic total anomalous, report of successful surgical correction (Joffe et al.), 250

- Quinton-Scribner shunts, dec clotting of (Watt et al.), 292 (Annot.)
- qrS pattern, right precordial, due to left anterior hemiblock (McHenry et al.), 498
- QRS amplitude changes after hemorrhage, importance of blood, heart, and tissue conductivity with regard to (Manoach et al.), 726
- QRS-blocking pacemaker, demand, method of suppression in study of arrhythmias (Trevino et al.), 20

- Radio-frequency energy, emergency management of pacemaker failure by means of (Benvenuto and Mayer), 738
- Renal arteries, multiple, and essential hypertension (Nomura et al.), 274
- arterioles and juxtaglomerular cells, ultrastructural changes in, in hypertension (Fisher), 125
- and systemic hemodynamics, canine, sequential effect of angiographic contrast agent on (Porter, Kloster, and Bristow), 80
- Respiratory disease and myocardial disease, serologic evidence of sporadic outbreak in Illinois of infection by Chlamydia (psittacosis-LVG agent) in patients with (Sutton et al.), 597
- Reticuloendothelial system, antilymphocyte serum blockade of (Sheagren et al.), 144 (Annot.)
- Revascularization of heart—numerators in search of denominators (Spodick), 149
- "Rheumatic" heart disease, pathogenesis (Kalbian), 579 (Letter to Editor)
- Rhythms, sinus, A-V nodal, His bundle, and idioventricular, differential effects of ouabain on (Scherlag et al.), 227
- Right bundle branch block and right axis deviation in patients with coronary artery disease (Varriale and Kennedy), 291 (Annot.)
- Rocker for old, feeble, or ill patients (Burch, Giles, and Colcolough), 143 (Annot.)
- Roentgenographic method for measurement of cross-sectional area of aortic valve (Stein), 622
- re-examination of internal anatomy of Taussig-Bing heart (Hinkes, Rosenquist, and White), 335
- RS amplitudes, T-wave inversion, and S-T elevation, comparison of, in precordial leads of Africans and Indians in Guyana (Ashcroft, Miller, and Swan), 467

- Septal defect, ventricular, isolated, quantitative anatomy of (Lev et al.), 315

- Shock, aortic declamping (Thomas), 845 (Annot.)
gram-negative, pathophysiology of (Christy), 694
- Shunts, Quinton-Scribner, declotting of (Watt et al.), 292 (Annot.)
- Sinoatrial heart block, chronic (Rasmussen), 38
- Sinus rhythms, differential effects of ouabain on (Scherlag et al.), 227
- Sodium excretion in patients in congestive heart failure, effects of glucagon on (Simanis and Goldberg), 202
- Spartans, modern, Tarahumara Indian runners, cardiovascular observations on (Groom), 304
- Splanchnic hemodynamics in rhesus monkey, effect of ouabain on (Shanbour et al.), 511
- S-T elevation, RS amplitudes, and T-wave inversion, comparison of, in precordial leads of Africans and Indians in Guyana (Ashcroft, Miller, and Swan), 467
- Stenosis, hypertrophic subaortic, complicated by aortic insufficiency and subacute bacterial endocarditis (Cardelia et al.), 543
- mitral, evaluation of (Comhaire and Uyttenhove), 443 (Letter to Editor)
- SVEC-III lead system, simplification of (Yokoi, Schmitt, and Simonson), 658
- Sympathectomy, lumbar, for chronic occlusive arterial disease (Richards), 735
- Syncope, carotid sinus, demand pacing in (Fearon), 581 (Letter to Editor)
Reply (Voss and Magnin), 581
- Systemic and renal hemodynamics, canine, sequential effect of angiographic contrast agent on (Porter, Kloster, and Bristow), 80
- T
- Tachycardia, chronic, congestive heart failure following (Coleman et al.), 790
paroxysmal, mechanism in neonates (Roelandt and Roos), 842 (Annot.)
- Takayasu's disease, hypersecretion of estrogen in (Numano and Shimamoto), 591
- Tamponade, cardiac, experimental, action of pharmacologic agents in (Finegan et al.), 220
- Tarahumara Indian runners, modern Spartans, cardiovascular observations on (Groom), 304
- Taussig-Bing heart, roentgenographic re-examination of internal anatomy of (Hinkes, Rosenquist, and White), 335
- Tetralogy of Fallot, anatomic variations in (Rao, Anderson, and Edwards), 361 and heart failure (Chesler et al.), 321
- Thromboembolic complications of heart valve prostheses (Friedli et al.), 702
- Tissue conductivity, importance of, with regard to QRS amplitude changes after hemorrhage (Manoach et al.), 726 (Letter to Editor)
- Transplant, elegant (Burch), 573 (Annot.)

- Transposition, congenital corrected, with atrial inversion and normal hemodynamics (Fixler), 387
- Transthoracic demand pacemaker implantation, entrance block previously unrecognized phenomenon associated with (Rubenfire, Breneman, and Taber), 102
- Transvenous pacemaker catheter, unusual complication of (Massumi), 259
- T-wave abnormalities during hyperventilation and isoproterenol infusion (Biberman, Sarma, and Surawicz), 166 in ECG's of top-ranking athletes without demonstrable organic heart disease (Hanne-Paparo, Wendkos, and Brunner), 743
- alternans, association with abrupt rate change (Fisch, Edmands, and Greenspan), 817
- inversion, isolated, in ECG of children (Awa et al.), 158
- S-T elevation, and RS amplitudes, comparison of, in precordial leads of Africans and Indians in Guyana (Ashcroft, Miller, and Swan), 467
- primary, new electrocardiographic waveform (Abildskov et al.), 242

U

- Ultrastructural changes in renal arterioles and juxtaglomerular cells in hypertension (Fisher), 125
- Uric acid, serum, cholesterol, and cortisol intercorrelations in normoactive subjects (Rubin et al.), 843 (Annot.)
- Urine excretion in patients with congestive heart failure, effects of glucagon on (Simanis and Goldberg), 202

- Valve(s), heart, prostheses, thromboembolic complications of (Friedli et al.), 702
prosthetic, durability of (Hysten), 299
mitral, angiographic assessment of, diastolic mitral regurgitation pitfall in (Linhart, Hildner, and Samet), 439 (Annot.)
incompetent heterograft, murmurs originating from (Killebrew and Cohn), 490
prosthetic, ball variance in, auscultatory and phonocardiographic sign of (Schluger, Mannix, and Wolf), 809
- pulmonary, premature closure, and backward transmission of left atrial V wave (Spring and Rowe), 327
- Valvular and intracardiac trauma, untreated (combined), with long asymptomatic survival (Ehrenstein et al.), 685
- Vascular conductance and pulmonary arterial flow, effects of ventilation on (Murao and Rodbard), 69 resistance, peripheral, effect of pentazocine on (Levitsky et al.), 381
- VCG and ECG, computer analysis in 1,002 patients with myocardial infarction (Eddleman and Pipberger), 608
- Venous drainage, subdiaphragmatic total anomalous pulmonary, report of successful surgical correction (Joffe et al.), 250 pressure and circulation time (Lawrence), 728 (Letter to Editor)

- Ventilation, effects on pulmonary arterial flow and vascular conductance (Murao and Rodbard), 69
- Ventricle, double-outlet left, with ventricular septal defect and pulmonary stenosis, report of surgical repair (Kerr et al.), 688
- left, methods of measurement of mechanical events of (Oreshkov), 725 (Letter to Editor)
- mass indices of, at autopsy in children (Rimoldi et al.), 770
- right, myxoma of (Hubbard and Neil), 548
- Ventricular aneurysm, annular subvalvular left, in North American infant (Folger and Stanton), 392
- arrhythmias in experimental acute myocardial ischemia, relative effectiveness of three antiarrhythmic agents in treatment of (Weisse et al.), 503
- treatment of, with bretylium tosylate (Krall and Rakita), 288 (Annot.)
- function following acute alcohol administration: strain-gauge analysis of depressed ventricular dynamics (Newman and Valicenti), 61
- Ventricular—Cont'd
- left, and left atrial recording, bipolar coronary sinus lead for (Castellanos, Castillo, and Myerburg), 832
- muscle of hamsters with hereditary cardiomyopathy, absence of Bowditch phenomenon in (Hajdu and Posner), 781
- power, left, in man (Russell et al.), 799
- septal defect with double-outlet left ventricle and pulmonary stenosis, report of surgical repair (Kerr et al.), 688
- isolated, quantitative anatomy of (Lev et al.), 315
- Viral service laboratories, regional (Burch), 847 (Annot.)
- V_{max} , is it a valid contractile index? (Pollack), 572 (Annot.)
- V wave, left atrial, backward transmission of, and premature pulmonary valve closure (Spring and Rowe), 327
- W
- Waveform, new electrocardiographic; primary T wave (Abildskov et al.), 242

- Pacemakers, demand, irregular recycling of from borderline electrographic signals (Barold et al.), 477
- failing, emergency management of (Escher, Furman, and Parker), 717 (Letter to Editor)
 - Reply (Benvenuto and Mayer), 718
- permanent, manufacturers of (Hoffman), 843 (Letter to Editor)
- triggered, failure of (Furman, Escher, and Parker), 28
- Pancreatitis, acute, resembling acute myocardial infarction, ECG changes in (Cohen et al.), 672
- Papillary muscle dysfunction, experimental evidence in man of electrocardiographic manifestations of (Giles and Burch), 193
- Parasystole, ventricular, in healthy hearts (Myburgh and Lewis), 307
- Parkinsonism and hypotension caused by L-dopa (Stern and Hunter), 570 (Annot.)
- Patency, coronary vessel, importance of: effect of beta-adrenergic receptor stimulation on regional myocardial metabolism (Griggs, Tchokoev, and DeClue), 492
- Pericardial cellular response during the post-myocardial infarction syndrome (Soloff), 812
- effusions, pericardial windows or pericardiocentesis for (Fredriksen, Cohen, and Mullins), 158
- tamponade, youth, tachycardia, normotension, and cardiomyopathy, correlations with: dicrotism in heart disease (Meadows, Draur, and Osadjan), 596
- windows or pericardiocentesis for pericardial effusions (Fredriksen, Cohen, and Mullins), 158
- Pericardiocentesis or pericardial windows for pericardial effusions (Fredriksen, Cohen, and Mullins), 158
- Permanent pacemakers, manufacturers of (Hoffman), 843 (Letter to Editor)
- Phase plane cardiogram, the: a new approach to clinical electrocardiography (Freeman et al.), 654
- Pheochromocytoma, management of patients with (Gitlow, Pertsemidis, and Bertani), 557
- Phosphokinase, creatine, blood levels of, effect of decapitation on (Meltzer and Guschwan), 138 (Letter to Editor)
 - Reply (Wexler), 138
- Placenta, antisera to, production of congenital heart defects with (Barrow and Taylor), 199
- Plasma catecholamines and whole blood histamine in myocardial infarction, sequential estimation of (Griffiths and Leung), 171
- renin, low, aldosterone excess and, hypertension with, quadric analysis in the preoperative distinction between patients with and without adrenocortical tumors in (Aitchison et al.), 660
- volume changes with long-term beta-adrenergic blockade (Tarazi, Frohlich, and Dustan), 770
- Plethysmography, digital, measurement of left ventricular ejection time by (Chirife, Pigott, and Spodick), 222
- Pleurodynia, acute, ECHO viruses, and carditis (Bell and Grist), 133 (Annot.)
- Postcardiotomy syndrome—infectious disease? (Louhija, Kaihilahti, and Halonen), 283 (Letter to Editor)
- Post-myocardial infarction syndrome, pericardial cellular response during the (Soloff), 812

- Postresection changes and ECG features in left ventricular aneurysm, analysis of (Cokinos et al.), 149
- Prehospitalization monitoring of cardiac rhythm, continuous (Anderson, Knoebel, and Fisch), 642
- Prenylamine in angina pectoris, double-blind, double cross-over trial of (Winsor et al.), 43
- Pressure, suprasystemic, in the right ventricle, tetralogy of Fallot with (Padmanabhan et al.), 805
- Progeria of Hutchinson-Gilford, a caricature of aging (Rosenbloom and DeBusk), 287
- Propranolol in hypertension (Zacharias and Cowen), 427 (Annot.)
retardation of the arterial pressure wave by (Keller and Rodbard), 794
- Protein-calorie malnutrition, role of magnesium in (Rosen), 1
- Pulmonary artery, right, origin of, from right-sided ductus arteriosus, with double-outlet right ventricle (Misra and Cohen), 228 atresia and intact ventricular septum complicating corrected transposition of great vessels (Steeg et al.), 382 emboli in small vessels, wedge arteriography for identification of (Stein), 618 embolism, acute, pathophysiology and experimental treatment of (Spotnitz, Berman, and Epstein), 511 venous return, obstructed anomalous (Shadravan et al.), 232 total anomalous, review and report (Jensen and Blount), 387
- Pulse, the arterial, in health and disease (O'Rourke), 687
tracings, carotid, in hypertrophic subaortic stenosis (Carter et al.), 180 wave velocity in healthy subjects and in patients with various disease states (Eliakim, Sapoznikov, and Weinman), 448
- Q
- Quadric analysis in preoperative distinction between patients with and without adrenocortical tumors in hypertension with aldosterone excess and low plasma renin (Aitchison et al.), 660
- QRS complex of electrocardiogram, influence of hemorrhage on (Manoach et al.), 55
- R
- Raynaud's disease and phenomenon, a medical approach (Willerson and Decker), 572 (Annot.)
- Rb⁸⁶, myocardial clearance of, and parameters of central hemodynamics in man without coronary arterial disease, effects of dipyridamole on (De Ponti and Bardi), 69
- Receptor stimulation, beta-adrenergic, effect of on regional myocardial metabolism: importance of coronary vessel patency (Griggs, Tchokoev, and DeClue), 492
- Recycling of demand pacemakers, irregular, from borderline electrographic signals (Barold et al.), 477
- Regurgitation, tricuspid, changes in, dynamics of normal jugular bulb pulsations and (Domanchich and Koenker), 252
- Release, hemoglobin-oxygen, in ischemic heart disease, disorders of (Guy, Salhany, and Eliot), 824
- Renal failure, liver disease, and heart failure, influence of, on disposition of lidocaine in man (Thomson, Rowland, and Melmon), 417 function, effect of exercise on some clinical measures of (Kachadorian and Johnson), 278 (Annot.)
- Renin in differential diagnosis of hypertension (Oparil and Haber), 568 (Annot.)
low plasma, aldosterone excess and, hypertension with, quadric analysis in the preoperative distinction between patients with and without adrenocortical tumors in (Aitchison et al.), 660
- Retinopathy, diabetic, factors relating to progression of (Taylor and Adnitt), 425 (Annot.)
- Rhythms, inferior atrial, VCG study and electrophysiologic considerations (Piccolo, Nava, and Dalla Volta), 468
- Right ventricle, double-outlet, with origin of right pulmonary artery from right-sided ductus arteriosus (Misra and Cohen), 228
- S
- Salivary gland hemorrhage as complication of anticoagulation therapy (Glasser, Pinder, and Robins), 282 (Letter to Editor)
- Saphenous vein bypass—coronary artery surgery (Burch), 137 (Annot.)
- Selective attention to cardiac cycle, teaching of, with Cardio-gater (Adolph and Campbell), 215
- Septal defect, ventricular, small, left ventricular outflow tract obstruction due to, with double outlet right ventricle (Lavoie et al.), 290
- Septostomy, balloon, in transposition of the great arteries, thrombosis of the IVC following (Hawker et al.), 593
- Septum, cardiac interatrial, lipomatous hypertrophy of, and atrial arrhythmias (Hutter and Page), 16
- Serum cardiac glycoside concentration measurements, the clinical use of (Smith), 833
lipid levels, exercise test, and history in patients with chest pain and normal ECG at rest: comparison to findings at coronary arteriography (Ascoop et al.), 609
- Sotalol, hemodynamic studies in man with, at rest, during exercise and right ventricular pacing (Thumala et al.), 439
- Spontaneous closure, the invisible sutures of: therapeutics of nature (Perloff), 581
- S₁Q₃ (McGinn-White) pattern in acute cor pulmonale: form of transient left posterior hemiblock (Scott), 135 (Annot.)
- Starr-Edwards valve replacement after a decade, an appraisal of (Rogers), 577 (Letter to Editor)
- Steal syndrome, subclavian, in right aortic arch with isolation of left subclavian artery (Shuford, Sybers, and Schlant), 98
- Stenosis, hypertrophic subaortic, carotid pulse tracings in (Carter et al.), 180
mitral, and mitral insufficiency: complication of healed bacterial endocarditis (Benisch), 39
supraventricular aortic, ECG in (Maron and Sissman), 300
- Stimulation, beta-adrenergic receptor, effect of on regional myocardial metabolism: importance of coronary vessel patency (Griggs, Tchokoev, and DeClue), 492
coupled and paired ventricular, effects of following acute myocardial infarction in dogs (Falicov, Resnekov, and King), 521
- Strokes and hypertension (Carter), 131 (Annot.)

- Subclavian artery, left, subclavian steal syndrome in right aortic arch with isolation of (Shuford, Sybers, and Schlant), 98
- steal syndrome in right aortic arch with isolation of left subclavian artery (Shuford, Sybers, and Schlant), 98
- Subnodal and intranodal block, coexisting: an unusual abnormality of atrioventricular conduction (Mandel et al.), 586
- Superimposition of ECG's on cineangiographic film, a practical technique for (Osenkowski, Sessions, and Carleton), 709 (Annot.)
- Surface potential recordings, recovery of moving dipole from (Horan and Flowers), 207
- Syndrome, post-myocardial infarction, pericardial cellular response during the (Solooff), 812
- Systole, cardiac, effects of normal breathing and expiratory apnea on duration of the phases of (Pigott and Spodick), 786

- Tachycardia, bidirectional (Mihai and Lazar), 844 (Letter to Editor)
- Reply (Rosenbaum, Elizari, and Lazzari), 844
- normotension, youth, pericardial tamponade, and cardiomyopathy, correlations with: dicrotism in heart disease (Meadows, Draur, and Osadjan), 596
- repetitive multifocal paroxysmal atrial: with cyclic Wenckebach phenomenon (Omori), 527
- Tamponade, pericardial, youth, tachycardia, normotension, and cardiomyopathy, correlations with: dicrotism in heart disease (Meadows, Draur, and Osadjan), 596
- Temperature, environmental, and the incidence of myocardial infarction (Sotaniemi), 723
- Tensilon (edrophonium), use of, in evaluation of cardiac arrhythmias (Reddy, Gould, and Gomprecht), 742
- Tetralogy of Fallot with suprasystemic pressure in the right ventricle (Padmanabhan et al.), 805
- Therapeutic effects of coronary drugs in the U.S.S.R., comparison of (Simonson and Berman), 684
- Therapeutics of nature: the invisible sutures of "spontaneous closure" (Perloff), 581
- Thermography, infrared, diagnosis of coarctation of the aorta by (Abernathy, Ronan, and Winsor), 731
- Thrombosis, deep vein, management of (Kakkar), 422 (Annot.)
- of the IVC following balloon septostomy in transposition of the great arteries (Hawker et al.), 593
- Tosylate, bretylium (Cooper and Frieden), 703
- Toxicity, digitalis, role of magnesium in (Seller), 551
- Transcutaneous assessment, directional, of venous inflow (Alexander, Nippa, and Folse), 86
- Transplantation, kidney (Calne), 838 (Annot.)
- Transposition of great arteries, thrombosis of the IVC following balloon septostomy in (Hawker et al.), 593
- of great vessels, corrected, pulmonary atresia and intact ventricular septum complicating (Stegg et al.), 382
- Transvenous pacemaker, permanent, use of in 168 patients (Conklin et al.), 4
- Triggered pacemakers, failure of (Furman, Escher, and Parker), 28
- Tumors, adrenocortical, in hypertension with aldosterone excess and low plasma renin, quadric analysis in preoperative distinction between patients with and without (Aitchison et al.), 660

- Vagal component of chronotropic response to baroreceptor stimulation in man (Greene and Bachand), 22
- Valsalva maneuver made easy (Hamby, Meron, and Roberts), 838 (Annot.)
- Valve disease, mitral, evaluation of surgery for (Dubost), 143
- replacement, Starr-Edwards, an appraisal of after a decade (Rogers), 577 (Letter to Editor)
- VCG for body surface area, method for correction of the (Nelson), 715 (Letter to Editor)
- Vectorcardiographic study and electrophysiologic considerations of inferior atrial rhythms (Piccolo, Nava, and Dalla Volta), 468
- diagnoses and selective cine coronary arteriography, correlative study of 100 patients (Maron, Selvester, and Ellis), 163
- lead system, uncorrected vs. corrected (Mark), 139 (Letter to Editor)
- Velocity, aortic blood flow, during Wenckebach periods in man (Benchimol, Desser, and Gartlan), 796
- pulse wave, in healthy subjects and in patients with various disease states (Eliakim, Sapoznikov, and Weinman), 448
- Venous inflow, directional transcutaneous assessment of (Alexander, Nippa, and Folse), 86
- return, obstructed anomalous pulmonary (Shadravan et al.), 232
- total anomalous pulmonary, review and report (Jensen and Blount), 387
- Ventricle, double outlet right, with left ventricular outflow tract obstruction due to small ventricular septal defect (Lavoie et al.), 290
- hypoplasia of right, anastomotic coronary vessels in (Finegold and Klein), 678
- left, to right coronary artery, fistula (Galioto et al.), 93
- right, tetralogy of Fallot with suprasystemic pressure in the (Padmanabhan et al.), 805
- Ventricular activation related to atrial contraction, increase in threshold to: a possible example of "Wedensky inhibition" (Danzig and Diamond), 531
- aneurysm, left, analysis of ECG features and postresection changes (Cokkinos et al.), 149
- endocardial potentials after experimental coronary artery occlusion (Chatterjee and Rouse), 352
- failure, left, in experimental myocardial infarction, hemodynamic spectrum of (Kumar, Hood, and Abelman), 713 (Annot.)
- outflow tract obstruction, acquired right (Drachler and Willis), 536
- pacing, right, hemodynamic studies with sotalol in man, at rest, during exercise, and during (Thumala et al.), 439
- parasystole in healthy hearts (Myburgh and Lewis), 307
- performance, right and left, in chronic obstructive lung disease (Khaja and Parker), 319
- septal defect, small, with left ventricular outflow tract obstruction due to, with double outlet right ventricle (Lavoie et al.), 290
- septum, intact, and pulmonary atresia complicating corrected transposition of great vessels (Stegg et al.), 382
- stimulation, coupled and paired, effects of following acute myocardial infarction in dogs (Falicov, Resnekov, and King), 521

- Vessel patency, coronary, importance of: effect of beta-adrenergic receptor stimulation on regional myocardial metabolism (Griggs, Tchokoev, and DeClue), 492
- Vessels, anastomotic coronary, in hypoplasia of the right ventricle (Finegold and Klein), 678
- great, transposition of, corrected, pulmonary atresia and intact ventricular septum complicating (Steeg et al.), 382
- small, pulmonary emboli in, wedge arteriography for identification of (Stein), 618
- Viral and bacterial infections, mixed (Burch), 276 (Annot.)
- Virus infections, Coxsackie Group B, in sporadic myopericarditis, role of (Koontz and Ray), 750
- Viruses, ECHO, carditis, and acute pleurodynia (Bell and Grist), 133 (Annot.)

W

- Wave, arterial pressure, retardation of by propranolol (Keller and Rodbard), 794
- atrial recovery, effect of exercise on the (Riff and Carleton), 759
- "Wedensky inhibition," a possible example of: increase in threshold to ventricular activation related to atrial contraction (Danzig and Diamond), 531
- Wedge arteriography for identification of pulmonary emboli in small vessels (Stein), 618
- Wenckebach periods in man, aortic blood flow velocity during (Benchimol, Desser, and Gartlan), 796
- phenomenon, cyclic: with repetitive multifocal paroxysmal atrial tachycardia (Omori), 527
- in posterior division of left branch (Cerqueira-Gomes and Teixeira), 377
